

Brenton JONES – Braddon Candidate

Say hi to Brenton Jones, SFF candidate for Braddon.

Brenton is a devoted husband and father of adult children, who boasts a diverse career spanning various sectors. With experience in Civil Aviation as a Radio and Electronics Technical Officer at esteemed locations like Casey Station Antarctica and Devonport Airport, Brenton also established his own business specializing in electronic systems installation. His involvement in the Government's Television Black Spots program underscores his commitment to improving infrastructure. Holding a Degree in Adult and Vocational Education, Brenton has contributed significantly as a Maritime Engineer and Master in Tasmania and Queensland.

Outside of his professional endeavours, Brenton is an engaged community member, member of the Arms Collectors Guild of Tasmania. His passion for volunteer work aligns with his belief in giving back to his community. In his leisure time, Brenton enjoys recreational fishing and tinkering in his workshop, constantly seeking new knowledge and skills.

Deeply concerned about the direction of government initiatives and their impact on Australia's quality of life, Brenton is driven by a desire to combat the nation's deterioration. He is committed to leveraging his expertise and passion for positive change, advocating for policies that prioritize the well-being of all Australians.

SHOOTERS FISHERS and FARMERS Tasmania